- A. Commissioners
1. Ron Pritchard-Ron thanked the staff for their attendance at Board Meetings. Ron thanked all the staff that planned the annual Christmas party. Ron complimented Lucas Pauley, Marketing Director for his assistance with the Bridge Memorial Committee.
 2. Jerry Pauser-Jerry commented on the Ice Rink. Jerry reported it is a pleasure to see community members of all ages enjoying the ice rink.
 3. Rodney Frey-Rodney thanked Duane Long and all the staff for an excellent job at the Christmas party. Rodney said it was very well done.

4. Keith Aurand-Keith thanked everyone for the Christmas party
5. Anthony Venier-Anthony thanked everyone for the Christmas party. Anthony met with Kyle Gridley to look at the new lights at Reynolds field. Anthony is grateful to Seth and Duane for getting the new LED lights put in. Anthony will be planning a site visit with contractors for the proposed new observation platform at Lowell Park.

B. Executive Director-Duane Long reported the remodel of the Lowell Park Bathrooms is almost complete. LED lighting is done and magnetic locking doors are now complete. Duane will be meeting with the city on the annexation of the Meadows property. Aquatics is being diligently worked on. Burbach Aquatics and Ringland-Johnson are working together. A report is expected in approximately 90 days with the information we need to go to the public.

Duane asked to move next month's board meeting to February 22, 2023 due to a conflict. All five board members agreed to move the date. Michelle Lawson will get the change reported with the media. Tyler Hodapp-reported projects in the Spring will be to spruce up the bathroom on the bike path. Tyler is working on getting new equipment to help keep the parks looking good.

Cindy Jankiewicz-reported Mr. Yowl, the owl has a very weak voice right now. He appears strong. Duane Long asked her to contact a veterinarian if needed. Cindy will contact Hoo Haven to come out as the first option.

Lucas Pauley-reported he is working on upcoming events. Movie Night is the next event. Lucas is also working on IT updates.

Michelle Lawson-reported Com-Ed has been great to work with on getting new lights installed for the parking lot at the Facility. Michelle thanked everyone that attended the Christmas party and all staff and their families for the help in planning and implementing the party.
